

First Presbyterian Church of Woodstock

A fellowship of people in all stages of life who gather together, praising and worshipping God with gratitude for our many blessings, accepting and caring for all God's children, and serving the community and the world with love and joy.

Spreading the Seeds of Christ

In a commentary on the parable of the mustard seed, New Testament Professor Holly Hearon wrote, "The COVID-19 pandemic has shown us how something so small that it is invisible to the eye can grow rapidly and exponentially into a destructive force that consumes all our attention and resources, as individuals, communities, nations, and as a world." It is both true and hard to believe.¹

We have witnessed damage wrought by tiny acts of maliciousness or even indifference. Just as we can spread a virus unintentionally, we can be careless with our words, discouraging in our conversations, or dismissive of others' feelings. The negativity often buries itself deep inside the psyche of its victim and multiplies out of control.

Thankfully, there is a cure. Jesus lived the antidote. We who follow him have felt a good dose of it from him. Jesus tells us that no matter what we have been or done; no matter what other people think of us; no matter what hurtful words we have heard from ourselves or others; we are beloved children of God.

We who are Christ followers are called to be the antidote in the world—the seeds of what Paul calls the fruits of the Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.² These, too, are contagious. Even a tiny bit of any of one of these fruits will infiltrate the hearts of those with whom we share. They will expand in us, and in the recipient, until all that is harmful begins to be smothered and obliterated.

May we be a people who pay attention to the seeds we sow. May we be Christ's people—until all the sick are healed and each and every person is filled with shalom.

Worship, Music and Arts

In response to the Mission Study Team recommendations, the Session has changed our governing structure and consolidated some staff roles. This includes renaming the Worship Commission to the Worship, Music and Arts Committee. This change reflects a desire to expand participation in worship leadership and broaden the ways in which we glorify God and share God's word.

The stated goal is to "enhance worship through diversity of liturgy, music and delivery style." Specific action steps are to:

- Develop a worship-leader role responsible with the pastor for building inclusive, intergenerational, innovative worship that inspires spiritual growth and closeness to God.
- Build on the variety and balance of musical styles as well as instrumentalists and vocalists.
- Identify congregational talent and interest and support the development of skills in a variety of musical, dramatic, visual, and poetic arts
- Actively recruit children and youth in all areas and in all services

Session has developed a Worship Arts Coordinator position charged with coordinating leadership in the areas of music, drama, visual arts and digital presentation. Even as COVID-19 continues to restrict our ability to sing, the Coordinator will work with Pastor, Accompanist, and Worship, Music and Arts Committee to utilize the vast musical gifts God has given the congregation and wider community. Until this position is filled, please contact Christy Johanson if you are interested in offering a gift of music, drama or other art for worship.

Over the nearly three months of digital worship, "attendance" at services more than doubled. Strong in-house and streamed visual arts will be vital moving forward.

This is not intended to replace the wonderful ministry that has served this congregation, but to enable greater in-person and virtual involvement.

Please be prayerful about where your gifts for worship might be shared in the Great Hall, your lawn chair or your couch.

MANY, MANY THANKS!

Many thanks to all who made July worship possible by offering their gifts as musician, liturgist, greeter, usher, set-up, sign-up, sound or video recording:

TOGETHER TO LAUGH AND LEARN

Picnic! Picnic! Yes, picnic!

Let's all gather on the church lawn for a COVID safe picnic ...

Wednesday, Aug. 26

4:30 p.m. for intergenerational games

5:15 food served

N.O.W. Team will host

Free to all

Please wear masks and bring a blanket to stake out your turf (chairs, too, if you don't want to sit on the ground). For COVID safety, we will social distance and the food will be served in carryout boxes – one per diner.

Questions? Text or call the N.O.W. team: Mark Bundick

(224-242-2451), Lee Nejdil (815-546-1731), Katie Spaldon (815-276-3410), or Cheryl Wormley (815-519-7402).

Sharing God's love during COVID

Joy! Joy! Joy! God has made a way for worshipping outside. A huge thank you to Karen Thennes and Ed's Rental for our worship cover -- a beautiful white canopy.

And thanks to the Holy Spirit for moving amongst us, providing cooling breezes. Come, there's room for more.

Thanks, also, to Pam Moorhouse for a beautiful new "Welcome" sign that was designed by Christy Johanson.

Our orderliness as Presbyterians means social distance is respected, and everyone is wearing a mask. If bringing a chair is a hindrance to coming, folding chairs are always available.

Fist and elbow bumps and warm words of welcome have replaced out-stretched hands and hugs. Since masks hide smiles, we see joy in each others' eyes. And, although our usual coffee time is on hold, worshipping outside is offering new, fun fellowship opportunities. Kite flying was enjoyed by young and not so young the last Sunday of July. Thanks to Justin Thuma who identified the updraft around the church.

Other social-distancing fellowship possibilities being discussed include line dancing and hula hooping. Can you teach line dancing or do you know someone who could? Let us know: Pam Moorhouse (815-814-5585), Sue Krause (815-451-5385), or Cheryl Wormley (815-519-7402)

P.S. If continuing to worship on Facebook is best for you, extend hospitality by sharing the worship post every Sunday.

There are still a couple of books available and it is not too late to join in the discussion. Phone or email the church if you are interested.

INTERGENERATIONAL MINISTRY

Many changes are in the works or already accomplished based on the Mission Study Team's recommendations and the Session's decisions as to how they would be implemented. By far the most significant recommendation and the most difficult to accomplish is the intention to become a congregation with ministry that is truly intergenerational. This is not a tweaking of how we do things or a new program to be implemented. It is a transformation of how we minister together in everything we do—our worship, our education, our fellowship, our outreach, and our mission to the community and the world. It requires a culture change—one that sees each and every person as a valuable member of Christ's family with essential gifts for our service to Christ and his kingdom.

Intergenerational ministry does not mean that every single thing we do must include persons of all ages. We can have programs for preschoolers and confirmation and retired folks. The kids can still enjoy the gaga pit; the men can still meet on Saturday morning for a meaty Bible study; and the ladies can still meet on Tuesday morning. What it does require though is for us to see that every aspect of what we do as a church is important for all ages.

Worship is important for everyone and everyone contributes to our communal praise. We will be thinking about how God's word can be heard by a seven-year-old and a seventy-year-old. We will be doing a lot of thinking and praying about how to address the musical needs of children and teens, their parents, grandparents and sometimes even, their great-grandparents. We need to provide meaningful worship for all the generations of Christ-followers.

Our understanding of the Divine is never complete. Intergenerational ministry recognizes that our faith must grow to stay vital and that this growth is a life-long need. We learn from all our interactions in the church and beyond. Importantly, learning together across the ages requires us all to be students and to see each other as fellow teachers. Even the youngest have much to teach.

Intergenerational ministry sees all we do together as spiritual practice and each member as a minister. A pastor cannot do this for us. Staff cannot do this for us. It is a ministry to which we are each called and equipped. When we play or sing, eat or build or fix or clean or worship or study together, we are building relationships with one another in Christ. We are not just nurturing individual children, youth or adults, we are building Christ's community. If we want everyone to see themselves as a vital part of this community, we have to know each other's names, have conversations together, laugh together, cry together.

This will require active participation of the whole congregation. It will require everyone coming to the table—the picnic table, the NOW table, the Lord's Table. Sometimes it will require sitting with people you don't yet know. It may require sometimes not sitting with the people you do. It is clear, though, that this congregation desires strong connections between the generations and is supporting devoting energy toward this goal. We are each the source of that energy and, by the power of the Holy Spirit, it will be more than enough.

CONFIRMATION EXPERIENCE

Last year we began a revolving three-year Confirmation program for youth grades 6th, 7th and 8th. This year, until the Pandemic has subsided, we will meet via Zoom but also have regular real, live, in-person gatherings for fun and service. Watch for a more detailed plan and for information on our first event in August (date TBD) — S'mores at the Firepit. Looking forward to a great year.

Thanks to everyone who stayed after worship to fly kites on the 26th and to everyone who stayed to cheer them on. We had a great time on the south lawn. Thanks also to Bob Diss and Kristen Matter for sending us off with Let's Go Fly a Kite— it was wonderful. Thank you God for a beautiful day!

Deacon Ministry

The Deacons continue to pray for the well-being of our members and friends. It is great that some are able to worship in person on the lawn. About 40 people have been in attendance each week. We encourage everyone to make the decision regarding attendance that seems safe and appropriate. If you cannot attend, please enjoy worshipping with our community on-line.

We know that many are continuing to shelter at home. Remember to stay in touch with each other and please contact your Deacon if there is any way we can assist you.

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN IN THE PRESBYTERY

Ladies,

The PWP CT (officers) met July 10th and one of the topics discussed was the Fall Gathering. It was decided that for the health and safety of everyone that the gathering be held virtually via Zoom. Mark your calendars for Saturday, October 10, 2020 and all your PW members are invited to attend. If you are not familiar with Zoom, please contact your pastor as the last few Presbytery Meetings have been held on Zoom and he/she may be able to answer any questions. The order of business is to elect and install the new PWP Officers. They are Betsy Kinder, Moderator; Karen Williams, Vice Moderator; and Susan Barlow, Member-at-Large. Betsy Kinder, Moderator, is completing her term as Moderator of PWCT of Synod of Lincoln Trails. She lives in Savanna, IL. Karen Williams, Vice Moderator, lives in Joliet and presently serves as Pastor of the Kankakee Church. Susan Barlow, Member at Large, lives in Princeton and has previously served on the PWPCT, plus was part of the Global Exchange to India.

We are seeking nominations for Area 1 Leader and Area 4 Leader - a person to keep in touch with the churches in those areas and to gather information from them to include in the Memos publication. Also need a nominee for Together in Service/Peace, Justice & Hunger Coordinator. This officer checks the PCUSA website for information and shares it with the team and with PW thru Memos. She also initiates the annual Church World Service Kits challenge. Another nominee for Member at Large is welcome.

Please send your registrations to me for the gathering via e-mail on or before October 1st. List the names of those participating, their church and each person's e-mail address. The meeting will start at 10 a.m. and you will be able to log-in 15 minutes prior to the start time. Karen Williams will be our host.

Blessings to all, Jill Sunday—PWP Communications Editor

SERVING TOGETHER

Girls 4 Ghana

G4G is going strong at FPC, despite quarantine!! The Mission Commission has adopted their cause of bringing sanitary supplies to the girls in Ghana who are in need of them. We have hosted one gathering night to work on our project; there are more to come in the coming year! If the walls are closing in on you these days and if you are in need of a project, give a shout out to either Joyce Maynard or Julie Farver.

There are some pre-cut materials available with instructions on how to sew if you have some extra time before the next event. Contact Joyce or Julie and they will deliver the material to your porch. No problem!!

Unfortunately, Dina and her group were not be able to make their recent trip to Ghana due to Coronavirus. We are hoping for another sewing gathering in October. They are going to be busy getting ready for 2021, with over 4,000 pads needed! We would love to have you join us in the cause!!

Highway 47 Clean-up

Many thanks to the troopers who came out to clean our highway. It was a fabulous cardio work-out, great conversation and a gracious gift to the community.

Balance Sheet

The Presbytery Mission Grant commitment of $10,000 was paid in June. To date we have not moved any of the Session authorized funds ($65,000) to the Operating Budget.

It is particularly joyful that our congregation has found the various ways to continue their generous contributions per their pledges and general giving as we navigate this time of physical separation. The Finance Commission appreciates your effort to keep contributions nearly equal to budget during this pandemic. God Bless you all!

FPC has already paid Blackhawk Presbytery the 2020 Per Capita assessment for each FPC member. If you have not already paid your Per Capita we will appreciate receiving your payment. The per capita assessment for 2020 is $38.47 (same as 2019); GA-$8.95, Synod-$3.81, Blackhawk Presbytery-$25.71. Thank You.

Respectively submitted by Bob Clark (Chair) on behalf of your Finance Commission –
